THE SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF CHANGE:
Contemporary Perspectives on Defining and Documenting Clinical Outcomes

THE FOURTH ANNUAL YALE-RIGGS CONFERENCE
on Developmental Psychopathology,
Family Process and Social Context

FRI/SAT
JUNE 19–20

Presented by the Yale University School of Medicine and the Erikson Institute of the Austen Riggs Center
The fourth annual Yale-Riggs Conference on Developmental Psychopathology, Family Process and Social Context will examine contemporary perspectives on the definition and documentation of clinical outcomes occurring in response to psychotherapy and other psychosocial interventions being delivered in public and private treatment settings.

For information on registration, learning objectives, continuing education credits and a list of topics and presenters, please call [413] 931.5230 or visit:

WWW.AUSTENRIGGS.ORG/2015YALERIGGSCONFERENCE