1. Developing a better team always begins with you.

2. You cannot build a good team without great players.

3. When it comes to having good people on a team, you really have only two choices: train them or trade for them.

Norma Meek, National Trainer, School of the 21st Century, Yale University