All U.S citizens and permanent residents applying to the Yale School of Public Health (YSPH) are eligible to apply for need-based grants from the school. The Financial Aid Office will process financial aid applications, and notify students of aid they are eligible to receive as soon as possible after the student has been admitted, and their file is complete. To be considered for a need-based grant from the school, applicants must meet the submission deadline regardless of whether an offer of admission has been made. Students whose Financial Aid Application becomes complete after the deadline will be considered for grants based on the availability of funds.

If you are applying for need-based aid from the school and/or student loans:
- Complete the School of Public Health Financial Aid Application.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).
- If you filed a federal income tax return for 2015, you have the option to link your tax return to your FAFSA. If you do not link the tax return, request an official transcript of your federal income tax return from the IRS, and submit it with your application.

FAFSA: Filed on or after October 1, 2016
Results due: March 1, 2017

The FAFSA must be completed on the web at www.fafsa.ed.gov. The school code is 001426 (this code must be used) for Yale University. The FAFSA should be completed with the student’s, and spouse’s (if applicable) information only. You do not need to complete the parents’ sections on the FAFSA.

U.S. CITIZENS AND PERMANENT RESIDENTS:
Please return all materials via email or fax to the Financial Aid Office. You may contact the Financial Aid Office at 203.785.5417 or by email to jennifer.farkas@yale.edu if you have any questions regarding the financial aid process.

NOTE TO INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS:
YSPH does not offer financial aid to international students. There are private loans that international students are eligible to apply for with a credit worthy U.S. citizen or permanent resident. If you are interested in information on any of these loans, please go to finaid.yale.edu/costs-affordability/types-aid/alternative-loans and click on ELMSelect. You can also contact the Financial Aid Office at 203.785.5417, or by email to jennifer.farkas@yale.edu.
