Thank you for choosing Yale New Haven Hospital
We are looking forward to providing you with exceptional care.

Yale New Haven Hospital Preparation for this Exam:

Before Arriving for Your Exam

- Please arrive 15 minutes early to check in.
- Children accompanying patients during visits:
  - Unfortunately, we cannot routinely supervise your children during your imaging study. We believe that you are best served when we can provide 100% of our attention to you. Therefore, we encourage you to make childcare arrangements or to bring a responsible adult with you to supervise your children.
- Take all medications as directed by your doctor.
- There are no restrictions or preparation for your appointment.
- Although we do not anticipate any delay in your scheduled appointment, we recommend that you bring a book, magazine or music player to help pass any time you may need to wait.

After Arriving

- A radiology nurse or technologist will ask you a few questions regarding your medical history.

During Your Exam

- While positioning you on the exam table, the technologist will explain your procedure and answer any questions you may have.

Exam Duration

- Your scan will take only a few minutes.

After Your Procedure

- There are no restrictions placed on you after this procedure. You may eat and drive as normal.
- Your exam will be interpreted by a Radiologist (a doctor who is an expert in understanding these exams). A report will be sent to your provider, who can review the results with you.

RadiologyInfo.org is the public information resource developed by health care professionals in collaboration with patients. It was established to inform and educate the public about how various x-ray, CT, MRI, ultrasound, radiation therapy and other procedures/exams are performed and what you may experience during your procedure.

RadiologyInfo.org is sponsored by the Radiological Society of North America (RSNA) and the American College of Radiology (ACR).

Yale New Haven Hospital thanks you for choosing us to be part of your healthcare team.
