ADVANCING CARE IN LIVER CANCER

Surveillance, Team-Based Care, and Emerging Therapies

A Patient and Community Symposium

Saturday, October 17 | 9:00am -2:00pm | RSVP

The Greenberg Center, 391 Prospect Street, New Haven

Registration and Breakfast

Opening Remarks
Mario Strazzabosco, MD, PhD, MSc

The Value of Oncologic Surveillance

Understanding Risk: Genetics, Cirrhosis, Hepatitis, and Metabolic Disease
Catherine Mezzacappa, MD, MPH

Catching Cancer Early: Surveillance Strategies for People at Risk for Liver Cancer
Tamar Taddei, MD

Q&A Session

Networking & Refreshments

Multidisciplinary Care in Liver Cancer

Your Liver Cancer Team: One Patient, Many Experts: The Role of Multidisciplinary Care in Advanced Liver Cancer
Mario Strazzabosco, MD, PhD, MSc

Integrating Liver-Directed Therapies into Multidisciplinary Liver Cancer Care
David Madoff, MD

The Role of Liver Transplantation-Changing Indications, Increasing Opportunities
Ariel Jaffe, MD

Q&A Session

Lunch

New Treatment Options and Support

Expanding Choices: New Treatment Options in Liver Cancer and Role of Clinical Trials
Raghav Sundar, MD, PhD

Living with Liver Cancer: Liver Health, Nutrition, and Survivorship
Simona Jakab, MD

Collaborating with our Patients to Improve Care
Moderated by David Madoff, MD

YaleNewHavenHealth
Smilow Cancer Hospital

Yale Cancer Center

cure® EDUCATED PATIENT® LIVER CANCER SUMMIT