Yale Alumni Endowments

Seven endowments from generous alumni provide funding for medical students to complete clinical experiences in international settings. Each of these endowments have been developed to support travel and living expenses for a highly motivated medical student who wishes to do a rotation in an underdeveloped country or a country where there is a pressing health-care need. For more information, contact the Office of International Medical Student Education.

These travel awards and recent recipients are:

- Eric P. Kindwall, ’60 International Clinical Rotation Fund
  This fund supports travel and incidental expenses for an international clinical rotation for a highly motivated medical student who wishes to do their rotation in a developing country but lacks the means for such.
  - Charisse Mandimika, Uganda (2014)
  - Brian Letzen, Argentina (2015)
  - Derek Kong, China (2015)
  - Karl Grunseich, Indonesia (2015)
  - Daniel Barron, China (2016)
  - Daniel Zheng, Argentina (2017)
  - Siyu Xiao, China (2018)
  - Angela Gauthier, Thailand (2018)
  - Anand Gopal, Thailand (2018)
  - Marquita (Kilgore) Nolan, Tennessee (2018)

- Daniel B. Stryer, MD Class of 1990 International Clinical Rotation Fund
  This fund is intended to support the travel and living expenses for an international clinical rotation of a highly motivated medical student who wishes to do their rotation in an underdeveloped country or a country where there is a pressing health-care concern but lacks the means for such an experience.
  - Regina Melendez, Brazil (2015)
  - Dame Idossa, South Africa (2015)
  - Tiffany Yuh, South Africa (2015)
  - Luis Rubio, South Africa (2016)
  - Edward Herman, China (2017)
  - Wendy Xiao, China (2017)
  - Gerneiva Parkinson, Jamaica (2017)
  - Wendy Li, Thailand (2017)
  - Nathan Piraktikul, Thailand (2017)
  - Carla Lopez, Uganda (2017)
  - Alexander Domingo, Chile (2017)
  - Frances Grace Javier, Argentina (2018)
  - Aimee Alphonso, Chile (2018)
  - Adam Brownstein, Chile (2018)
  - Goran Micevic, China (2018)
  - Allen Shih, China (2018)
  - Sophie Chung, Colombia (2018)
  - Jennie Choe, Ghana (2018)
  - Hadley Bloomhardt (2018)

- Susan Wolf, MD and William Green, MD Fund for International Clinical Rotations
  This fund is intended to support the travel, living and preparatory expenses (e.g. immunizations, evacuation insurance, etc.) for an international health-related experience of a highly motivated medical student(s) or MD/PhD student(s) who lacks the means for such an experience. It is to support an international clinical opportunity that exposes students to under-served populations.
  - Sarah Jin, Uganda (2015)
  - Flavia De Souza (2016)
  - Elizabeth (Chen) Kurtz, China (2017)
  - Eunice Martins, Indonesia (2017)
  - Amanda Lu, Dominican Republic (2018)
  - Mehida Alexandre, Argentina (2018)

- Mitchell Edson MD, Fund for International Clinical Rotations
  This fund is intended to support the travel, living and preparatory expenses (e.g. immunizations, evacuation insurance, etc.) for an international health-related experience of a highly motivated medical student(s) or MD/PhD student(s). It is to support an international clinical opportunity that exposes students to under-served populations.
  - Sarah Xu, China (2015)
  - Flavia DeSouza, Indonesia (2015)
  - Samantha Kaplan, South Africa (2016)
  - Tsion Aberra, Colombia (2017)
  - Ravi Gupta, South Africa (2017)
  - Lucy Liu, China (2017)
  - Melody Hu, Argentina (2018)
  - Alex Sun, China (2018)
  - Lucy Zhang, China (2018)
Yale Alumni Endowments (continued)

- Maria Turner, MD & Raymond W. Turner, MD 1958 International Fellowship
  This fellowship will cover the costs incurred for travel, expenses, immunizations, for a medical student seeking an international experience, with a preference for clinical experiences.
  - Ken Hui, Dominican Republic (2015)
  - Raj Chovatiya, China (2016)
  - James Smithy, Chile (2017)
  - Juan Rodriguez-Guzman, Colombia (2017)
  - Genevieve Yang, China (2018)

- Howard A. Minners, M.D. 1957 International Fellowship
  The Minners fellowship will fund the travel and living expenses for an international health-related experience for a student, resident or faculty member.
  - Mona Guo, China (2015)
  - Amanda Wallace, China (2015)
  - Jia Liu, China (2015)
  - Anna Sfakianaki, Fac.to Dominican Republic (2016)
  - Cynthia Gneco-Wilamo, Fac. to Dominican Republic (2016)
  - Alyssa Nylander, Botswana (2017)

- The Major José Jamil Miranda Memorial Fund for Clinical Rotations
  This fund is to assist Yale School of Medicine students who are pursuing a short-term clinical, public health, or research experience, by enabling the exploration of an area of medicine or public health in a unique and under-served setting. While an international experience is preferred and encouraged, the location may also be domestic.
  - Anne Beckett, Haiti (2014)
  - Regina (Melendez) Nagarajan, Peru (2015)
  - Jacob Siegel, Chile (2016)
  - Ava Yap, Uganda (2017)
  - Katherine Chung, Argentina (2018)
  - Julia Raney, Chile (2018)
  - Elizabeth Ludwig, Ghana (2018)

- Schwartz Fellowship
  This fellowship is to support the travel, housing, medications and immunizations, evacuation insurance, visa and HIV Prophylaxis expenses for an international clinical rotation of a highly motivated medical student.
  - Connie Cheng, China (2016)
  - Aimee Alphonso, Ghana (2017)
  - John Gaudet, Indonesia (2017)
  - Samantha Kaplan, Uganda (2017)
  - Taber Lightbourne, Argentina (2017)
  - Chris Marfo, Ghana (2017)
  - Talia Robledo-Gil, Chile (2017)
  - Jenny Dohlman, Thailand (2017)
  - Yale-INTEC Practice Based Learning Elective, 9 pre-clinical students the Dominican Republic (2017)