

Yale Global Health & Equity Distinction Pathway Requirements 2022-2023

A. Clinical Opportunities

	Experience	Description	Credits
General Clinical Activities (achieve 10 credits)	HIV Training Track	Three-year track within the Yale Primary Care Internal Medicine Residency Program focused on HIV medicine ( http://hivtraining.yale.edu )	10
	Collaborative Behavioral Health & Addiction Medicine in Primary Care (CHAMP) Training Program	Three-year track with in the Yale Primary Care Internal Medicine Residency Program focused on addiction medicine ( https://tinyurl.com/ycku9mch )	10
	Elective in HIV Care/Urban Health	Two-week elective based in a multidisciplinary HIV outpatient clinic	10
	Home Visit Elective	Two-week elective focused on developing skills and comfort with conducting primary care home visits	10
	Street Medicine Elective	Two-week elective focused on developing skills and comfort with providing care to homeless populations	10
	Community Care Van	Outreach/direct care program for early intervention and linkage to care for individuals in low-income neighborhoods	2 per session
	Refugee Clinic	Resident-run clinic that provides care to newly arrived refugees and links them to community providers	2 per session
	Center for Asylum Medicine Evaluation	Participation in forensic medical evaluation of asylum applicants	2 per session
	HAVEN Free Clinic	Student-run multidisciplinary primary care clinic for uninsured patients	2 per session
	Alternate Elective*	*Must be approved in advance by the GME Office and GHEDP Leadership to receive credit	10
Immersive Clinical Opportunities (required ≥4 week rotation at one site)	Yale/Stanford Global Health Scholars Program	Six-week elective based at one of six partner sites ( http://medicine.yale.edu/intmed/globalhealthscholars/ )	Required
	Indian Health Service (IHS) or Grundy County, Tennessee Elective	Rural, domestic, cross-cultural experience in providing outpatient and/or inpatient care
	Global Health Elective – New Haven	Four-week New Haven-based elective
	Alternate Site*	*Must be approved in advance by the GME Office and GHEDP Leadership to receive credit

B. Didactics

	Experience	Description	Credits
Interdisciplinary Seminar Sessions (achieve 10 credits)	Global Health Foundations Seminar	Weekly introductory seminar addressing key issues in global health research and practice	2 per session
	Topics in Global Medicine	Weekly student-led, case-based seminar focusing on key clinical issues in global health.
	Critical Issues in Global Health	Weekly seminar focusing on the health of vulnerable communities in LMICs, including the politics and governance of global health, and low-cost solutions.
	Global Mental Health Program Seminar	Series of lectures focused on key issues in global mental health
	Global Health Night Out	Quarterly journal club/discussion sessions bringing together trainee and faculty discussants from different clinical disciplines/health professions around one topic
	Alternate Educational Session*	*Must be approved by GHEDP Leadership to receive credit

C. Scholarship: Project and Presentation

	Experience	Description
Global Health Project	Research OR Education	Projects may involve hypothesis-driven, mentored investigation or education-focused projects related to ongoing global health activities	Required
Presentations	Conference Presentation OR Manuscript Submission	May take advantage of local, national, or international opportunities for presenting scholarly work (poster or oral), as well as peer-reviewed publication opportunities in journals or MedEdPORTAL	Required
	Dissemination Back to Target Community	Demonstrate an implementable plan for sharing scholarship results with the subjects of that work	Required
	Communicating About Global Health	Global Health Night Out (Discussion Lead) OR Op-Ed submitted for publication OR Noon Conference (Global Health-focused) OR Global Health Week activity (leadership role)	Required
	Immersive Clinical Activity Presentation	Lecture presentation related to immersive clinical activity – focus on linking clinical case to global burden of disease	Required