Research Attachment For Visiting Research Faculty From Academia, Other Nonprofit Institutions, Or Governmental Entities¹

This attachment applies to the proposed collaborative research activities to be conducted by _____ while appointed as Visiting Research Faculty (“the appointee”) at Yale as described in section 4 of the application. This attachment is effective once this letter is signed and the appointment is approved by the Yale School of Medicine Faculty Affairs Office or the Provost’s Office, and lasts for the length of the appointment.

1. In order to promote collegiality, Yale agrees that the appointee may retain any intellectual property they create pursuant to their work at Yale, subject to the following:
 - a. Yale’s research mission would be impeded if the appointee contributed to advancing knowledge or research, and then used their intellectual property rights to block Yale from using those advancements. The appointee therefore hereby grants Yale a nonexclusive royalty-free license to use intellectual property they created at Yale for Yale’s teaching, research, or other educational or academic purposes. The license is sub-licensable by Yale to its partners in research, education and/or training.
 - b. Research at Yale often involves obligations to outside parties. For example, money, materials, software, and/or equipment are often provided through contracts that give some intellectual property rights to the providers (e.g., sponsors). If the appointee uses these resources, or contributes to work using these resources, the providers may have rights in the results from the appointee’s research. Yale must be able to fulfill its obligations to the providers. The appointee therefore agrees to assign and hereby does assign to Yale rights to intellectual property created by the appointee at Yale, to the extent necessary for Yale to comply with its obligations to third parties.

¹ Visitors who are Yale employees and therefore sign a Yale Patent Policy Acknowledgment do not need to sign this form.

- c. The appointee agrees to promptly notify Yale's Office of Cooperative Research of any inventions arising from their activities, so that intellectual property rights can be determined. If Yale commercializes the results of the appointee's research, Yale will share commercialization proceeds with the appointee as if they were a Yale faculty member, following applicable Yale policies and procedures.
 - d. The appointee agrees to execute any documents necessary to implement this Section 1.
2. The appointee will abide by all applicable Yale policies, procedures and guidelines, including training requirements relevant to use of Yale facilities.
3. The appointee will not bring equipment, supplies, or materials to Yale without the permission of their Hosting Faculty member, the written approval of Yale's Environmental Health & Safety department, and an executed agreement referencing this letter (e.g., a material transfer agreement or equipment/supplies use agreement governing the terms and conditions of the use of the material, equipment or supplies). If materials are to leave Yale at the end of the term of this appointment, then the parties agree to follow Yale procedures for the transfer.
4. The results of the research and any information identified as confidential are Yale's Confidential Information. During the term of this Agreement, the appointee may have access to information, data and techniques that are confidential to Yale or third parties to whom Yale has obligations of confidentiality. The appointee will not disclose Confidential Information until it is published by or with the permission of the Hosting Faculty member, or [duration to be filled in at direction of Hosting Faculty member] after the termination of this Agreement, whichever comes first. However, any information identified as Confidential Information of an outside party shall be maintained in confidence for as long as is required by the contract or other obligation making it confidential. It is the obligation of the appointee to find out from the Hosting Faculty member how long the confidentiality obligation lasts.
