

Pharmacology

Graduate Students:

Application for Travel Funds

THE WILLIAM H. PRUSOFF AWARD

Eligibility Requirements:

1. The student must be registered as a student in the Pharmacology Department and have a submitted and accepted abstract which will be presented at a national, or international meeting, with the agreement of his/her faculty mentor.
2. Pharmacology students may apply for this award anytime during their graduate student tenure within up to 6 years.
3. The travel will be awarded up to $2,000 (depending in part, on the cost of travel). No more than two meetings will be allowed in a student's career at Yale, and funding for two consecutive years, or multiple awards in the same year will also not be allowed.
4. The faculty mentor will have the option to supplement the award with permission from Pharmacology Director of Graduate Studies.

Required Application Contents:

Your submitted abstract

Notification of your abstract acceptance (oral, or poster presentation)

Title, location, and dates of the upcoming meeting

Letter of support from your faculty mentor

Submission:

Please send your completed application to:

Dr. Mark Lemmon at Mark.Lemmon@yale.edu and be sure to copy:

Chris DiGioia at Christopher.Digioia@yale.edu and the supporting Sr. Admin Assistant of your lab.

Your application must be sent to the 3 people listed above for proper review.