Goal 1: Increase the number of addiction specialists adequately trained to work with underrepresented minority (URM) patients with substance use disorders

Goal 2: Increase the overall number of URM addiction specialists in Addiction Psychiatry and Addiction Medicine in the workforce

- 7 TOTAL Addiction Psychiatry & Addiction Medicine Fellows slots – up to $104,000 Funding available
- 10 TOTAL Trainees (i.e. medical students, APRN or NP students, PA students, and medical residents)
- Travel Awards available for accepted scholars
- Application Deadline December 15, 2019
- U.S. Citizens only
- Underrepresented minorities only (Now accepting non-URM fellows on a rolling basis)
- Program information, application checklist, application link on website https://medicine.yale.edu/psychiatry/education/reach/reach.aspx

Kathryn Cates-Wessel, PI, AAAP
Ayana Jordan, MD, PhD, Medical Director, Yale
Jeanette Tetrautt, MD, Co-Medical Director, Yale
Dafna Paltin, Project Manager, Yale
For More Information: reach.program@yale.edu

Funding for this initiative was made possible (in part) by grant no. 1H79TI081358 from SAMHSA to the American Academy of Addiction Psychiatry working with Yale. The views expressed in written conference materials or publications and by speakers and moderators do not necessarily reflect the official policies of the Department of Health and Human Services; nor does mention of trade names, commercial practices, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. government.